62	FREE TO BE ME	This discussion group offers students a safe environment in which they can talk to peers about their high school experiences. Members will have the ability to participate in icebreaker activities aimed at helping members develop comfort and trust within the group environment. Topics pertaining to adolescence will be the center of our discussions together. These can include how the transition from middle school to high school is going, how students are coping with more demanding academic work, and how they are adapting socially at the high school. We encourage members to bring their own topics to the group for discussion! Approval Required.	9th-10th	Campbell, K. Rice, A.	SWARTZ COUNSELING CENTER
